New Industry Hopes Dampened By Water Needs

Andover's water treatment plant may have produced unanticipated problems for local officials who today are "agonizing a decision" on whether the town is willing to provide close to a million gallons of water per day to an industrial firm interested in locating a reported $6 million plant in Lowell Junction.

The selectmen were apprised of the decision of The Carr Co., through its vice president, John Wilson, Monday night. The Carr company, which manufactures fasteners, is now located in Cambridge and Burlington and would like to move its Cambridge operation to a new plant to be built in the Lowell Junction area.

The Andover operation, initially will involve the plating process of its operation which requires process water. Water mains are in the area now and the new plant could be serviced by connecting two 12-inch mains in close proximity to the proposed industrial site.

The problem lies in the amount needed. As of Monday night, Mr. Wilson estimated that initial use would require 600-800 gallons per minute, which in rough figures equals about a million gallons a day.

The water service to the area can be provided, but would be greatly reduced, should there be a fire in the area, Public Works Director Robert McQuade informed the selectmen.

The decision, which the selectmen must "agonize over," as Chairman Milton Greenberg puts it, results from whether the town wishes to supply the water needs for the new plant, reviewing in the process the water rate structure of the town, as well as the determination of how best to utilize the new treatment plant at Haggetts Pond.

Santa Parade Scheduled For Next Week

Andover's annual Santa Claus parade is scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 14 at 10 a.m.

The traditional greeting extended Santa by the Andover Firefighters was originally scheduled for this Saturday, but postponed a week due to Andover High School's participation in the Super Bowl game.

Commuters Keep Their Train On The Tracks

Andover rail commuters got the reprieve they've been waiting for early Tuesday morning, when the MBTA voted to continue stopping here - at least till the March town meeting.

While the Andover Rail Committee was a little short of its $6000 goal, it apparently had enough to show the MBTA "good faith." The $6000 was an estimated cost of operating the train until the town meeting reconsiders town subsidy of the once-a-day commuter service.

Atty. Robert Zollner, chairman of the newly formed save-the-train group, said the funds totalled $5640 Tuesday morning, and they were "still counting."

Today was the actual deadline set by the MBTA for the pledges.

The money is being placed in an escrow account and will be turned over to the MBTA, should town meeting refuse to honor this year's expenses and okay an agreement with the MBTA for next year. Any surplus after expenses would be returned to the commuters.

If the town picks up the tab, however, all the money would be refunded.

Zollner said the committee still hopes to get to the $6000 mark, "or nudge it very closely."

He said the group will now concentrate on "preparing its lessons" to get a favorable vote at the March town meeting.

Committee Inspects Property

The committee named to study the feasibility of acquiring the Sacred Heart school property was scheduled to hold its first meeting Wednesday night.

The committee to be headed by Austin E. Anderson, as chairman was to meet and receive instruction on their duties, to be followed by a visit to the property in Shawsheen for inspection of the buildings.

The Sacred Heart school closed this summer. The town has expressed an interest in the property, some feeling at least the land should be acquired for conservation and recreation, as well as preventing development of the area.

Others see possibilities of use of the building, the former general offices of the American Woolen Company, as meeting town needs for administrative offices and classroom space.

Aiding Strategy Session

While the strategy planning for Saturday's game goes on inside, Cheerleader Susan Dube adds the final festive touches outside Coach Dick Collins' closed door. The youths even posted a little homespun wisdom.

Warriors Still Hopeful For A 'Winters' Day

By Rick Harrison

It was only a few years ago that the words "Super Bowl" conjured up merely the image of a king-sized piece of kitchenware.

Today, however, the magical phrase describes the epitome of excellence in both professional and Massachusetts schoolboy football.

A one-game showdown to determine the best in the Eastern portion of the State! Andover High and the "Super Bowl" are quickly becoming old friends, because this Saturday morning at 10:15 o'clock Coach Dick Collins' Warriors become one of the few schools in the event's brief history to qualify two consecutive years.

Andover, 10-0-0 for the regular-season and champs of the Merrimack Valley Conference, will lock horns with Salem, 10-0-0 and kings of the Northeastern Conference, in Division II Super Bowl IV at Boston University's Nickerson Field.

Survey Of Elderly Scheduled

The Massachusetts Department of Public Health is sponsoring a survey of the elderly and chronically ill to determine the need for health care services. Between now and January, more than 8000 households throughout the Commonwealth will be screened for the Department by the Survey Research Program of the University of Massachusetts. Two thousand residents who are over age 64 or chronically disabled will be interviewed in depth.

Dr. William J. Bicknell, commissioner of public health, initiated the study in order to obtain information about the needs of the elderly and chronically ill for health care and for support services, such as hot meal programs. One of the underlying assumptions of the study is to test and qualify that there is a need for more services to be provided to older citizens in their homes.

The study will gather information on physical capability, food and nutrition, transportation, housing, social interaction, financial resources, and medical and dental care. A second wave of follow-up interviews will be done by a team of health professionals.

The results of the study are expected to be useful to the State Departments of Public Health, Community Affairs, Welfare, and Elder Affairs, as well as local organizations, in program planning and resource allocation.

Fire Dept. Issues Holiday Safety Tips

The Christmas season usually goes hand in hand with traditions. Many traditions revolve around the decorating of the Christmas tree, and the purchasing of gifts for loved ones and friends. Underwriters Laboratories Inc., a not-for-profit organization testing for public safety, and your local fire department, would like to offer a few tips to help make your holiday safe - not sorry.

DO be careful when buying your tree -

When purchasing your Christmas tree this year, buy a firm, fresh tree. Store it in a cool place with the base of the tree in water - until ready to be decorated.

If you prefer an artificial tree - be sure to look for the UL Label when making your purchase.

DO make a check of the decorations you use -

Remember to check the decorative lighting strings for frayed wires, broken cords, and loose sockets. These conditions pose potential electrical hazards. Use only light strings that bear a UL Label.

When trimming the tree, avoid using candles or other decorations that may ignite easily. Keep the tree away from the fireplace, radiator, and the T.V. set - any source of heat may cause the tree to become dry, thus creating a fire hazard.

DON'T overdo it -

Be sure not to overload the electrical circuits in your home. The wires that carry more current than they can handle may overheat and cause a fire. Read manufacturer's instructions on lighting strings carefully and do not use more than the recommended number of lights in one circuit.

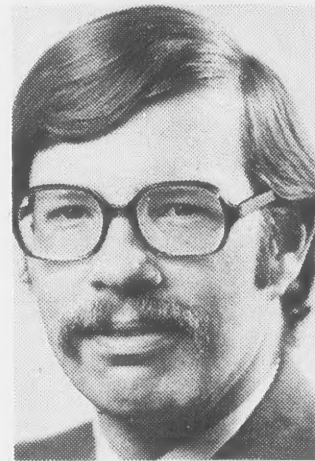

Christmas decorations are beautiful - and very pleasant to look at. However, when you leave your home or retire for the night, turn off the light sets, colored spot lights, or other decorations.

DON'T settle for the unknown -

When purchasing gifts for the people you care about take time out to check for the UL Label. Gifts of electric food blenders, hair dryers, hot combs, and the like are tested for safety by Underwriters Laboratories. Show that you care - check for the UL Label.

Be safe and happy this Christmas season. When preparing for the holidays take the extra steps to show you care - follow the Do's and Don'ts outlined above. You'll be glad you did.

Michael E. Costello

Named Intown Manager

Michael E. Costello of Andover has been hired by the Lawrence Intown Merchants Association as Manager for Intown Affairs. He is assigned to the staff of the Greater Lawrence Chamber of Commerce, and will devote full time to Intown promotion and development.

"His overall objective," said Samuel J. Damiano, Executive Vice President of the Chamber, "will be to work toward increased viability of the Intown shopping district and to develop an atmosphere conducive to overall good shopping."

Costello will also work to "increase the participation of downtown business people, including property owners, professional offices, and financial institutions," Damiano said. In addition, as manager for intown affairs, he will act as "government liaison," according to the Executive Director.

Costello received his BA degree from Northwestern University and his MALD from the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy.

For the past seven years, he has worked in Munich, Germany for Radio Free Europe, most recently serving as Director of the Broadcast Analysis Department.

Costello, 31, resides at 36 Bancroft Road with his wife, Sally, and two children.

To Install Call Boxes On Rt. 93

Solid State Technology, Inc. (S.S.T.I.) has announced that it will supply 300 motorist aid radio call boxes and 4 receiving computer consoles for installation on Massachusetts I-93 and Massachusetts I-91 Interstate Highways.

The emergency call boxes are of the same design that are presently being used in Massachusetts on 64 miles of I-495 from Salisbury to Hopkinton and are presently being installed on 26 miles of I-195 from Seekonk to New Bedford. Installation of the system on I-195 will be completed in 1974; I-91 and I-93 will be in operation in early 1975. The Solid State Technology, Inc. call box transceivers and computer consoles for the three highway systems will cost approximately $1,000,000.

The call boxes will be located at half mile intervals on both sides of I-93 from Reading to the New Hampshire border and on I-91 from Longmeadow to Barnardston.

The availability of supplying a communications link between a motorist in a distress situation on the road and the State Police has never appeared to be economically feasible until the S.S.T.I. system was designed. The problem has always been the enormous maintenance cost associated with a communications system that would span the majority of the 42,500 miles of Interstate highways in the U.S. A network of over 150,000 radio transceivers on the nation's roadways needing underground wire or rechargeable batteries was said to be virtually impossible to maintain. The S.S.T.I. system, which eliminates both wires or batteries is said to be the only system that would be economically feasible for such a communications network.

The call boxes are powered by the distressed motorist. A person requiring assistance would simply open the call box door (which loads a mechanical power module) they would then select one or any combination of the exposed emergency buttons (road service, police, fire, or cancel call). Upon releasing the door, a coded radio signal indicating the type of emergency reported and the call box location will be transmitted to the receiving console located in State Police Headquarters.

Once the signal has been received at headquarters a return signal is sent back to the call box indicating that the call has been received and help is on the way. The call box unit is equipped with a vandal or knockdown alarm that will notify the State Police in the event the call box is tampered with or knocked over. This, again, would be accomplished without the need for any battery or wired power source.

Fire Unit Appears Agreeable To Pact

While members of the firefighters union appear ready to sign a new contract with the town, the police union is not and has decided to go to fact finding.

Negotiations between the town and the two public safety department unions have been underway for several months. The police recently picketed town hall to express their displeasure with a provision of the new contract which provides that an officer may not work overtime for three days after having sick leave.

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin reported Wednesday that the firefighters union had indicated agreement on their contract which provides for an eight per cent increase in salary effective July 1, 1974.

This provision establishes a firefighter's maximum salary schedule in Andover at $11,050.

The police have been offered the same wage package, but are disturbed over the contract provision dealing with overtime pay.

Town Manager Austin has had the provision inserted to curb abuse of the sick leave policy, and to date, the selectmen have supported his contention.

John Gibson, president of the police union, reported Wednesday that the members had met this week and agreed to go to fact finding.

The state has been contacted and a mediator will be assigned to review the facts in the case and present findings to both the manager and the union membership.

The union membership will then have the opportunity to accept the findings or decide to proceed further with arbitration.

Industry Needs Water

Both the selectmen and Carr Co. representatives met in an atmosphere of desiring to be good neighbors Monday night, the selectmen pointing out their problems in supplying the water needs, the industrialists expressing the hope to move here and be a good corporate citizen.

Tailoring the needs of the new company to the plans of the town and the requests for service from other communities from the treatment plant seem to be the matters for consideration by the board.

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin informed the selectmen that the matter was before them due to the criteria established by the Gillette Co., first major industrial tenant in the Lowell Junction area. That firm's water needs are far below that required by Carr.

The new firm would utilize a treatment plant of its own to reuse and recycle some of the water used for processing.

But this would only drop the total daily need by about 25 per cent, the selectmen were told Monday night.

Carr officials have agreed to review their figures to come up with firmer figures on their water needs, as well as taking another look at the reuse-recycling possibilities.

Austin explained to the board that the building inspector had examined tentative plans for the building and there was no problem with construction or zoning, thus the plant has no relocation difficulty in that area.

He went on to explain, however, that the water system in the Lowell Junction area was not built to meet a demand of this magnitude, although the supply and means are available, due to water extensions in the area, plus the treatment plant being in operation.

DPW Director Robert E. McQuade explained that the town is now averaging a water usage of three and one-half million gallons a day. The new plant would add another approximate one million gallons at the outset.

Mr. Wilson explained that the company's intent is to construct a 50,000 square foot building initially with production to start in 1976. Plans include total expansion to 185,000 square feet by 1980.

Employment would number about 100 initially with buildup to 300-400 with future expansion.

Of the 16 million total cost picture presented the selectmen, two and one-half million would be for equipment, he explained.

Chairman Greenberg, explaining that Andover's water rate structure never took into consideration usage of this magnitude, said he, for one, would strongly consider revamping the rate schedule should the company eventually locate here.

Mr. Wilson said he felt this would not have an adverse effect on the company's Andover location decision.

Of concern to the selectmen, as they individually expressed their feelings Monday night was the relationship the town has to area communities who have requested water from the treatment plant.

When Mr. Wilson asked if it was possible to have a decision from the board by Friday noon, due to an option on the land expiring, Chairman Greenberg said "no way," indicating it would be a month to six weeks at least before the board and other municipal officials could properly consider all facets of the issue.

Selectman Alan F. French said his attitude on the matter was negative at this point.

He said he felt satisfied with the pace of the town's industrial development at the moment. He felt bothered by the water usage problem and the drain on the town's resources in this area.

If the decision was needed by Friday, French said he would have to vote against it, indicating time was needed to assess such figures as the tax benefits to the town from the plant against the draft on the town's treatment plant.

Chairman Greenberg noted that the decision would also effect how soon the town would be going to the Merrimack river for water supply. The treatment plant was constructed to take water from the Merrimack to meet Andover needs when local supply was low.

It is expected that the Carr Company officials will request an extension from the property owner, Nicholas F. Fitzgerald, in order to allow time for the local board to make a decision on the water supply.

Advisory Council Named

The names of the people on the Chapter 766 Regional Advisory Council were released this week by Mrs. Pamela Kvilekval, pupil personnel administrator for the 766 program in Andover.

The councils have been established to allow for citizen and parent input into the program, and the members were appointed by the State Board of Education. They will receive complaints and suggestions about special education, assess the quality and adequacy of programs provided, and submit reports and recommendations to the State Advisory Commission for Special Education.

Northeast Region members are: James J. Barry, Jr., Lawrence; Mary A. Bower, Haverhill; Rita Desmond, Salem; Jeanne P. Louizos, Marblehead; Marie Price, Woburn; Nancy C. Smith, Stoneham; Patrick S. Sudbayh, Reading; John Wylie, North Andover.

Dr. Robert Armstrong, Chelmsford; Patricia Babcock, Lynn; Joan Bakalyar, Westford; Jean Bean, Hudson; Gertrude Florini, Beverly; Pamela Kvilekval, Andover; Everett J.

Lahey, Peabody; Joseph K. Lyons, Rowley; Robert D. Paul, Amesbury and Kerry Pickul, Ipswich.

Pack 72 Has Annual Inspection

Cub Scout Pack 72 had its annual inspection at a Pack meeting held in the Free Christian Church. Al Griffin and John Beanland representing the Shawsheen District, conducted the inspection checking for cleanliness, neatness and the proper care and wearing of the uniform. An overall good report was received from the inspectors.

Two new Cubs, Shawn Graham and James Carpentier were welcomed into the Pack by the Cubmaster, Bob Persing who also presented the following awards: Will Adams, Aquanaut, Athlete; David Cunningham, Aquanaut, Artist, Athlete, Citizen, Engineer, Outdoorsman; Daniel McDuffie, Gold Arrow, Athlete; Sean Norris, Athlete; Phil Travis, Engineer; Chris Reichert, Aquanaut, Athlete, Citizen; Jeff Reichert, Athlete, Citizen; Sean Persing, Engineer; Albie Cullen, Bear, Athlete, Sportsman.

The Den competition for the evening was a hammering and sawing contest which was won by the Webelos. On exhibit were bird feeders designed and constructed by the Cubs in Den 3.

The newly formed Andover Photography Club will hold its first monthly meeting on Tuesday, Dec. 10 at the Andover High School. The public is cordially invited to attend. The 8 p.m. meeting will commence with a fascinating travelogue slide show of England by John Walkinshaw, and a short general business meeting. David Skelly, professional photographer and technical advisor for the club, will conduct a technical session on lighting for portrait photography. A live model will be used, and the public is invited to bring their cameras and join in the salon photography session.

The club will hold monthly meetings on a wide variety of photography topics. Guest speakers, workshops, print and slide competitions, field trips, modeling sessions, and such are planned for the coming months.

Parker Guest Of Art Guild

The Andover Artists Guild will present Ed Parker, a local successful artist on Sunday, Dec. 8, at 2:30 p.m. at the Bay State National Bank building in Andover.

A graduate of Andover High school in 1964 and then a student of Frances Dalton, Parker went on to major in graphic design at Massachusetts College of Art. He received a graduate fellowship to the Rochester Institute of Technology, Rochester, N.Y. and received a Master of Fine Arts degree in 1969.

A 1964 recipient of the Andona Society Art Award, he has won awards at the Art Directors Club of Boston and one of his illustrations won a Hatch Award from the Ad Club of Boston in 1974.

He has worked as art director for several advertising agencies in Boston.

In 1972 he opened an illustration studio in Boston and his children's illustrations have been used by many of the major educational publishers throughout the country.

He lives in Andover with his wife and two children.

AFS Starts Family Search

A ten-month "experience" in international relations without leaving town -- that's what AFS International Scholarships is offering Andover families.

AFS Chapter President Mrs. Don Sagaser is searching for a family that will host an overseas student for the coming school year. The youngster will live with the family and attend classes at Andover High School.

"The main requirement for an AFS host family is the parents' concern for an interest in young people," Mrs. Sagaser says.

AFS International Headquarters in New York City carefully screens candidates who apply for a year's stay in the United States. Students come here from more than 60 countries. There are over 2,500 students from abroad currently living and studying in America this year.

The AFS program can be not only beneficial to the student, but also extremely rewarding to the host family.

A family may:
- acquire new perspectives about another culture
- experience the fun of a new and continuing friendship
- help a student discover the life of a community and a nation

Aside from food costs and possibly some small incidental expenses, the host family incurs no debt in hosting a student. The local Chapter raises an annual fee which -- when supplemented by whatever contributions the student can afford -- covers AFS program expenses.

AFS also extends a monthly allowance directly to the student to cover incidental personal expenses. The organization makes sure host families will not have to pay medical bills for students. As a matter of policy, AFS extends medical coverage to its students.

Host families may take a monthly tax deduction in accordance with provisions made by the United States Internal Revenue Service.

"So there is very little expense to a host family," Mrs. Sagaser stressed. "What is really needed is something that cannot be bought -- love and attention that every young person wants in a home situation."

While many families participating in the AFS program include children who are high school students, any family is eligible to serve as a host.

"Young families can have tremendous success when they volunteer as hosts," Mrs. Sagaser notes. "It becomes a learning experience for young children and for parents themselves."

Families interested in participating in the AFS experience are urged to write or call Mrs. Audrey Kenney, 11 Sagamore Drive or Mrs. George Bixby, 17 Stinson Road, both of Andover, and to attend an open meeting at the Memorial Hall Library, Dec. 11 at 7:45 p.m.

League Workshops Scheduled

The Andover League of Women Voters is preparing for the legislative session which begins in early January.

On Thursday, Dec. 5, several members will accompany Harriet Ahouse, Legislative Action Chairman, to the State House for a workshop on lobbying techniques. Senator Kevin Harrington and Speaker David Bartley will be among the speakers addressing the group.

On Dec. 9, the Board of the Andover League of Women Voters will meet with Senator William Saltonstall to discuss issues of concern to the League such as, transportation, environmental quality, land use and the judicial system. The following day members will be meeting with Representative Gerald Cohen to further exchange ideas on upcoming legislation.

The Leagues "Know Your Town Book," is on sale at Thompsons Stationery, Andover Book Store, and the Library.

6 Senior Citizens Workshop

The Recreation/Community Schools Department will offer two pre-Christmas workshops for Senior Citizens. On Wednesday, Dec. 11, Marti Schmidt will teach Bread Dough Ornaments. These ornaments make lovely Christmas tree decorations. The workshop will begin at 1:30 p.m. Marilyn Stella, recently elected president of the Andover Artist's Guild, will teach an art workshop on Tuesday, Dec. 17. This is designed to develop powers of observation. It will include still life and figure drawing. No prior art experience is needed for this workshop. The class will begin at 10 a.m. Both workshops will be held at The Haven.

Pot-Luck Supper At Center

The Andover Women's Center is sponsoring a pot-luck supper on Tuesday, Dec. 10, 7 p.m. at the Unitarian-Universalist Church on Lowell St.

All women in the area are invited to share the informal pot-luck and later hear from two active members of the Andover ABC program, Nancy Deacon and Margot Bixby. The focus of the program will be on the progress of ABC in Andover and what is currently happening with the girls' program and in the recently established dormitory on Bartlet St. Slides of the program will be shown for general background.

Nancy and Bill Deacon were the first Andover ABC house resident directors of the boys' dorm from 1967 to 1970, and Margot and George Bixby and their children have served as a host family for ABC students for the past five years.

All women are welcome and asked to bring a dish (casserole, salad, bread) or wine to share, as well as their own plate, silverware and cup and saucer.

PTO Bazaar Sunday

The Shawsheen School PTO Bazaar will be held on Sunday, Dec. 8 from 3 - 7 p.m. at the school in Andover. The Bazaar will feature Santa, handmade toys and gifts of great variety, holiday decorations, woodcrafts, plants, baked goods, raffles, children's books, cookbooks, and free games and gift wrapping for the children.

To make the day complete for the whole family, there will be a Family Spaghetti Supper with continuous serving from 4-6:30 p.m. For reservations for the supper, call Connie Gaudet, 4 Juliette St.

In token of Christ's birth in a manger, Poles spread hay on the floor and Lithuanians have straw under the tablecloth at their festive Christmas Eve meal.

Family Christmas Party Set For Library Dec. 15

A delightful afternoon is in the offing for the Friends of the Memorial Hall Library on Sunday, Dec. 15. All members are invited to attend the annual Family Christmas Party to be held in the Library from 3 to 5 p.m.

Featured on the program will be the Andover High School Woodwind Group under the direction of Edward Grigoli. These talented young people will offer some selections of traditional Christmas music. Master puppeteer and story teller, Peter Sellars, a Phillips Academy student, is planning lively entertainment designed especially for capturing the imagination of the children.

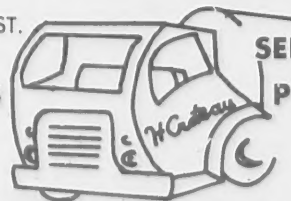

Included on the program will be the Hanukkah candlelighting ceremony. What has always been a highlight of the afternoon, the Family Sing, will be led by Mrs. Jerry O'Donoghue.

Refreshments will be served following the program.

Christmas Concert At Academy

On Sunday, Dec. 8, at 3 p.m., the Phillips Academy Concert Band will perform its annual Christmas concert. It will be held in George Washington Hall on the campus. This organization is conducted by William P. Clift, Jr. and James C. Harwood.

The concert will include a wide variety of band repertoire. "Stars and Bars" was written by Robert Jager, a prominent composer and educator. Girolamo Frescobaldi (1583-1644) wrote a famous "Toccata" for organ, and the band media lends itself well to performing organ works. This piece was skillfully scored for band by Earl Slocum. "Russian Christmas Music" by Alfred Reed has been a standard Christmas piece for the modern concert band. The work is based on an ancient Russian Christmas carol, and contains the motivic elements from the Eastern Orthodox Church. The first half of the program will end with "The Entertainer," a Scott Joplin tune arranged by Arthur Frackenpohl.

The second half of the program will open with "Procession of the Sardar" from the "Caucasian Sketches" by the Russian composer, Ippolitov-Ivanov. This will be followed by the "Mardi Gras" from the "Mississippi Suite," by Ferde Grofe. Grofe was a former arranger for Paul Whiteman and his best known arrangement was "Rhapsody in Blue." He was one of the foremost composers of band music in the United States.

This will be followed by "An Original Suite" for the concert band, containing three movements: March, Intermezzo and Finale, by the English composer Gordon Jacob. The final selection will be a Christmas composition entitled "Of Festival Bells and Ancient Kings" by Charles Spinney. This selection contains some of the least frequently played carols of the Christmas season: "Good King Wenceslas," "O Hark to the Bells Glad Sound," "Echo Hymn," "A Babe is Born, All of a Maid," and "In Dulce Jubilo."

There is no charge for admission and the public is cordially invited to attend.

The students at St. Robert's Country Day School have been quite active in their first two months of school. The 40 nursery students and their teachers, Mrs. Werner Anderson, Mrs. Paul Convey, Mrs. Martin Dispensa and Mrs. Harold Keegan, director, have already enjoyed three wonderful field trips.

The first of these took place in October when the children and volunteer mothers traveled to Applecrest Apple Orchards in Hampton Falls, N.H., where they picked apples and enjoyed cider and cookies. The next day they used their apples to make applesauce and later in the week the movie and record "Johnny Applesauce" was enjoyed by the children.

Entrance Exams At St. Francis

Saturday, Dec. 7, is the day set aside for entrance examinations to be taken by those wishing to enroll in the high school conducted by the Franciscans on River Road, West Andover. Since 1968 Saint Francis Seminary has opened up its school facilities to young men of the Andover-Lawrence-Methuen and the Lowell - Tewksbury - Dracut - Chelmsford area who wish to enroll as non-Seminarian day students.

The examination will begin at 9:15 a.m. and will include the Otis Beta I.Q. and the Differential Aptitude Tests, which will be scored by the Boston College Office of Testing Services. There is a charge of two dollars for defraying the costs of scoring.

The curriculum at Saint Francis Seminary is college-oriented and approved by the Archdiocese of Boston and the Massachusetts Department of Education. The seminary cooperates with the Andover Public School System and is recognized by the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Graduates have gone on to Merrimack, Lowell U., Boston U., Northeastern, Steubenville, No. Essex and Dallas U. in Texas.

Because of limited facilities, the number of boys accepted each year is restricted. Classes are kept small. A second testing may be conducted if the facilities are not filled in the first testing.

Those interested may write for an explanatory folder. Prior applicants will be reminded by mail. Others need not apply ahead of time, but may report on for the testing on Saturday, Dec. 7, at 9:15 a.m.

Christmas Events At Museum

A magnificent 18th century Venetian creche by an unknown master highlights the Museum of Fine Arts Christmas celebration this year. Twenty-six expressive figures molded in clay with a painted finish retell the Christmas story. The collection of angels, country folk, beggars, shepherds, and peasants will be on view in the "Stone Room" at the head of the Fenway staircase Dec. 4 through Jan. 5.

Christmas Spice: Films for Children - is another holiday attraction at the Museum. The program includes "Christmas Cracker," by Canadian Norman McLaren; "Tops" from the Eames "Toys" series; "Big Business" with Laurel and Hardy; "Night Before Christmas" with Mickey Mouse; and "The Great Toy Robbery" starring Santa Claus. The films, for ages 6-12, run approximately one hour and will be shown Dec. 21 and 28 at 11 a.m. and 2:30 p.m.; and Dec. 22, Jan. 4 and 5 at 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. in the Lecture Hall. Admission is free.

For Members, the Museum features its annual Family Christmas Concert. The Noble and Greenough School's mixed chorus presents selections of seasonal music on Saturday, Dec. 7 at 3 p.m. in the Tapestry Gallery.

Knights Explode In Finale, 25-2

THE TOWNSMAN, DECEMBER 5, 1974

By Bill Lafond

The Scarlet Knights of North Andover exploded in their Thanksgiving Day tilt against the Pentucket Sachems 25-2 to up their 1974 football record to the .500 mark at 5-5.

It was the first Thanksgiving Day victory in 17 years. The last time the Knights won on this holiday was back in 1957 when they defeated Andover 21-0.

The leaders on offense in the Knights win were Freshman tailback Dan Brucato, who had 109 yards on 26 carries along with two touchdowns, and Junior slotback Scott Boeglin with 85 yards on only 7 carries for 12 yards per clip.

Boeglin was the first to break the ice for the Knights as he went on a reverse 30 yards for the score with 1:14 to go in the first quarter. That 30 yard reverse run climaxed a drive of 69 yards in 9 plays. Fran Murphy's extra point kick was low, but the red and black were up 6-0.

Pentucket couldn't go anywhere on their following series with some fine defensive plays by Scott Kelly and Fran Murphy as they were forced to punt from their own 15 yard line. Sachem punter Duncan Kimball got off a 35 yard punt in which Bert Lawlor lost it and Ken Gosselin recovered the fumble at the Sachem 40 yard line as the first quarter ended. The Knights were up at the quarter break 6-0.

On the series by the Sachems, they couldn't get anywhere again. From their own 39 yard line Kimball's punt was blocked by Drew Donahue and John McManus. Mike Chory fell on it at the 15 yard line of Pentucket. It only took Brucato four off-tackle runs to score, as he plunged in from the three yard line. Quarterback Wayne Alexander's conversion pass was deflected and with only 2:26 gone in the second quarter, the Knights were in the lead 12-0.

Pentucket got something going on their next drive as pass interference on defensive back Willie Morgan set the Sachems up with a first and 10 at the N.A. 36. Quarterback Bob Carey lined a long pass to Ken Gosselin, which was good for a 35 yard pass play to the one yard line. However, a great defensive stop by Joe Terranova held Tim Lavalley from scoring on the first play. Terranova then recovered a fumble at the two yard line on the following try.

Brucato first moved the ball out 3 yards to the five yard line. On the next play Alexander tried an end around sweep but found no running room and was stopped in the end zone by Jeff Lothrop for a safety, and Pentucket was on the board.

There was no more scoring in the half as the Knights led 12-2 at halftime.

Early in the third quarter, the next big break came for the Knights as a bad snap from center on a punt set them up with a first and goal from the two. In all the fumbled snap was for a loss of 23 yards. It didn't take long to score as Brucato did it on the first crack from scrimmage, breaking in from the two, and with Murphy's successful boot the Knights had rolled up a 19-2 lead with 7:55 to go in the third quarter. It was Brucato's second touchdown of the day.

The rest of the third quarter the Knights put on one of the finest displays of defense you could ever see as Pentucket kept getting sacked for losses.

Early in the fourth quarter, the Knights started another potent drive with Brucato getting two 16 yard jaunts up to the Pentucket 44. An offside penalty put the Knights at the 35 where Sophomore Kevin Whitehead ran for the remaining distance to score. Murphy's extra point kick was wide and with 5:14 to go in the game the Knights had this game well in hand 25-2.

The Junior Varsity Cape Ann League Champs entered the game in the waning moments holding their own, and preserving the victory at 25-2.

This victory was the best the red and black has had this season. They rolled up 242 yards, all on the ground. The Knights played their biggest game of the season. They sacked Sachem quarterbacks Bob Carey and Tom Beaton no fewer than seven times for a negative 63 yards on the ground. Senior defensive tackle Tom Donovan had an outstanding day sacking the two backs four times himself for a total loss of 40 yards. In the airway Pentucket balanced that off with 115 yards, but they still only managed 52 yards total offense.

The Knights upped their record to 4-5 in the league and 5-5 (Continued on Page 17)

YMCA Special Events

The Andover-North Andover YMCA's Fall Term instruction classes come to a close this week except for make-ups of sessions which landed on holidays.

The Winter Term will begin on Jan. 4 and a descriptive folder will be available in mid-December. During the balance of this month most informal and recreational programs regularly scheduled at the YMCA will continue and, in addition, an extensive calendar of special events is on deck. Information concerning these programs may be obtained at the YMCA.

This Saturday, Dec. 7 will be Bring a Buddy day for the Saturday morning program package of gym, swim, movie for boys and girls in grades 1-6. Each regular participant is entitled to bring a friend as a guest for the morning. The "Movie of the Month" will be shown in the afternoon at 1 p.m. with a Walt

Disney movie being featured, "The Great Locomotive Chase."

On Dec. 10 is scheduled the first of several programs offered to adult and high school members in order to introduce them to various sports and recreational activities. Badminton will be featured on the 10th, gymnastics on the 12th, folk dancing on the 17th, and on Jan. 2 they will be introduced to a variety of activities including badminton, table tennis, floor tennis, paddle ball, and Jukari.

Special holiday period programs for youth members include a "Sleep-In" on Dec. 14 for grades 7, 8 and 9, and a Christmas Jubilee on Dec. 23, this being several hours of competition in gym activities, aquatics and table games in three age groups: grade 1 and 2, grade 3 and 4, grade 5 and 6. The first Members' Swim Meet will be held on Dec. 30 and 31.

Family members will gather for a family night on Dec. 30 featuring "pot luck" supper, gym activities and family swim. A Vacation Camp for youth in grades 3-6 will be conducted Dec. 26, 27, 30 and 31.

The Andover-North Andover YMCA Boys' Basketball Leagues will be organized to open action on Jan. 4 serving four age groups of boys.

Open to the community at large are two YMCA sponsored tournaments. Dec. 14 will open action in gym hockey tournaments for boys and for girls in grades 1-3. Basketball tournaments for boys and for girls in grades 4-6 are scheduled to open Jan. 2. Entry blanks for both tournaments are available at the new YMCA building and any group of youngsters in the two towns is eligible to participate.

Also open to the public will be a Christmas Party to be conducted on Dec. 24. Children in grades 1-6 will be entertained from 1-4 p.m. freeing parents at this critical time on the day before Christmas. The party is the project of the YMCA Junior Leaders' Clubs.

A Green Wreath Workshop for women scheduled for Dec. 10 and 12 has been pre-enrolled to capacity.

On Dec. 11, 13 and 18 an Institute for the training of swimming instructors of pre-school children will be conducted at the new YMCA pool. In addition to local YMCA leaders participants will include representatives of other YMCAs in the area.

Bantams Fund Drive Rescheduled

Because of the Andover High football team's participation in the Super Bowl this Saturday, the Andover Bantam 'A' traveling hockey team will reschedule its door-to-door canvass for Sunday, Dec. 8 and a week from Saturday, Dec. 14.

The canvass is a membership drive to raise funds for the team's annual week-long trip to Canada during the February school vacation.

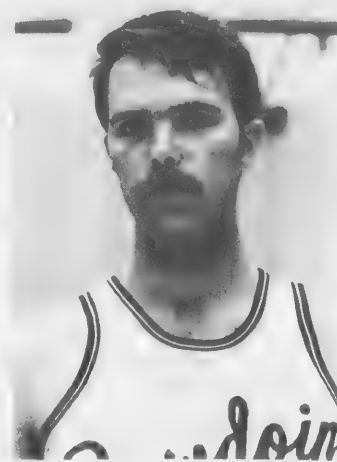

The Bantams currently have a 30-game schedule listed, with four open dates waiting to be filled in March.

The regular season opens on Monday, Dec. 23, with a game against Masconomet at Phillips Academy.

Andover will play 11 home games at Phillips and eight more at the S. Peter Volpe Complex of Merrimack College.

Following is the Bantam schedule to date:

December
23 - Masconomet, 10 a.m., Phillips
28 - Portsmouth, N.H., 3:45 p.m., PA
January
3 - Durham, N.H., 8:30 p.m., PA
5 - at Brunswick, Maine, 12 noon
8 - at Melrose, 8 p.m., Lynn Arena
11 - Hanover, N.H., 6 p.m., PA
12 - at Providence, R.I., 5 p.m.
14 - Masconomet, 6:15 p.m., Merr.

At Bowdoin

Steve Alexander (above) of Andover, is a member of the 1974-75 Bowdoin College varsity basketball team. A graduate of Andover High School, he is the son of Dean and Mrs. Edward L. Alexander of 80 Chestnut St., Andover.

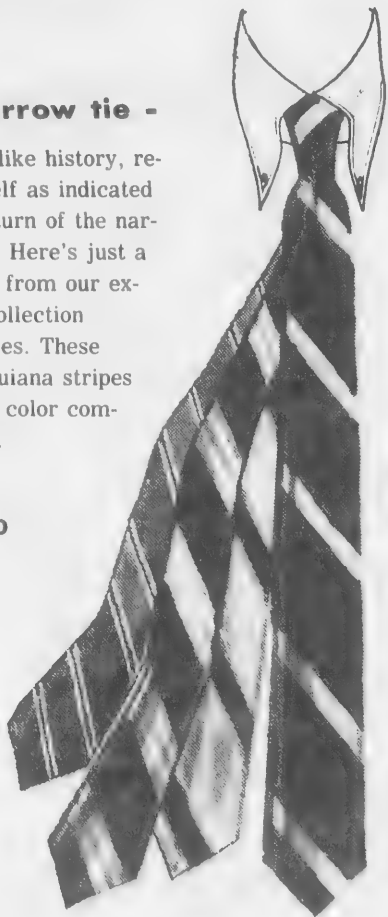

Basketball Tournaments Scheduled

Basketball tournaments for boys and for girls in grades 4-6 will be conducted by the Andover-North Andover YMCA beginning Jan. 2. Open to any groups residing in Andover or North Andover the tournaments will provide competition with awards to members of the top teams in a boys' division and a girls' division. Registration forms may be obtained at the new YMCA office at 165 Haverhill St., Andover or at Dana's Sport Shop in Andover, or Finneran's Drug Store in North Andover. Entries must be submitted by Dec. 23. Maximum age is 12 years as of Jan. 1, 1975.

Church Hoop League Underway

By Rick Harrison

The expanded Andover Church Basketball League tapped off its 29th season of competition with nine Intermediate Division games and one Senior contest last Monday night at the East Junior High and Doherty School gyms.

The remainder of the Senior quintets began activities last night, after TOWNSMAN presstime, while the Junior Division held opening night scrimmages on Tuesday and will start their games on Dec. 17.

There are a record 18 teams in the Intermediate Division, 10 in the Senior loop and a projected number of eight in the Junior Division.

Meier Paces West

Four-time defending champ West Parish A trimmed St. Augustine C in its opening test, 40-4, marking the winners' 11th straight league victory and 37th in the last 38 games.

Bob Meier led the West A assault by pouring in 15 points, while guard Chris Doherty also cracked double figures with 10 first-half markers.

Steve Doherty tossed in 6 points, Glen Johnson 5, Bruce Belbin a brace of free throws and Scott Harnden hooped one bucket.

Preparing For Season

Mike McDonald and Hugh Meier also played well, as West jumped to quarter leads of 13-0, 25-2 and 37-2.

Chris Bedell swished three points and Glenn Reichert hit a charity toss for St. Augustine C, which also had find efforts from Steve and Mark Paradis.

McNamara Shines

John McNamara picked up where he left off last winter, firing in 18 points to power St. Robert's C to a 34-9 conquest of St. Robert's A.

Todd Zimmerman helped out with 8 points, Ira Gold notched 4 markers and single baskets were garnered by Dampousse and MacLean.

Jamie Lebowitz was another standout for the victors.

Alex Lanio, Rich Danner and Leitch accounted for all of the St. Robert's A points.

Plass Hoops 14

Tim Plass stuffed 14 points, Jeff Saulnier pocketed 10 and Scott Nolin threw in 8 markers to guide West Parish B past new-entry Ballard Vale United, 32-14.

After falling behind 4-0, West B rallied for a 6-4 first quarter edge and increased it to 12-4 by half-time.

Registration for the Junior Division of the Andover Church basketball league began this week, with scrimmages schedule prior to the opening of the season in a few weeks. Signing up with Bob Pavin, center, league vice president, are, from left, James Lowe, Mark Bolan, Bobby French and Charley Diegenbein.

Mark and Paul Newton, Alex deConstant, Scott Belbin and Chris Saulnier also starred for the winners.

Darling gunned in 6 points, Bobby Heidt 4 and Todd McLeod flipped in a basket to pace Ballard Vale United.

Sirois Red-Hot

Paul Sirois had the hot hand, scorching the nets for 14 points to pave the way for a 28-22 St. Augustine B win over St. Augustine D.

The winners seemingly had the game under control at halftime, but Mike White and Roger Starmand sparked a third period 'D' comeback to tie the game 18-18. Six points by Sirois over the final six minutes insured the 'B' triumph.

Tom Walsh and Bill Caselden popped in 6 points apiece, while Jim Gioia banked in a two-pointer for the victors.

Chris Kelley, Brian Moriarty and Pete Walsh were other standouts.

Mike White, a talented 10-year-old, dunked 10 points to lead the 'D' crew. Roger Starmand added 6, Pat O'Connor netted 4 points and Ed Trainor arched in a basket.

E.J. Perry and Brian Busta were other stalwarts in a losing cause.

Kelley Connects

Ted Kelley, another 10-year-old, ruffled the strings for 11 points as St. Augustine G outlasted St. Robert's D, 24-11.

Kelley had 7 markers in the opening quarter as the victors grabbed an 11-0 edge and never looked back.

Mike Curley and Mike Yuska contributed 4 points apiece, Steve Parker gunned in 3 markers and Tim Corkery banked in a 10-footer.

Dick Kelley, Paul Marad and John Parker chipped in with several fine assists and steals apiece.

Ted Liszewski escaped on the left side of the bucket for 7 second-half points to power St. Robert's D.

Frank Byrne hooked in a two-pointer, while free throws were swished by Dick Adams and Vinnie Keegan.

Jeff Lindquist, Marty Melia, Pete Byrne and Matt Slaton also pitched in with good two-way efforts.

Footo Uses Hands

Fred Footo used his hands to toss in 12 points, more than enough to send St. Augustine A winging past the Christ Church Crusaders, 28-2.

Dave Fluett pumped through 6 points, Steve Smith 4 and solo buckets were delivered by the winners' Dave Gusmini, Jerry Fox and Jeff Fleming to complete the well-balanced charge.

D. Menard tucked in the lone two-pointer for the Crusaders, who trailed only 8-0 at halftime before the winners got untracked.

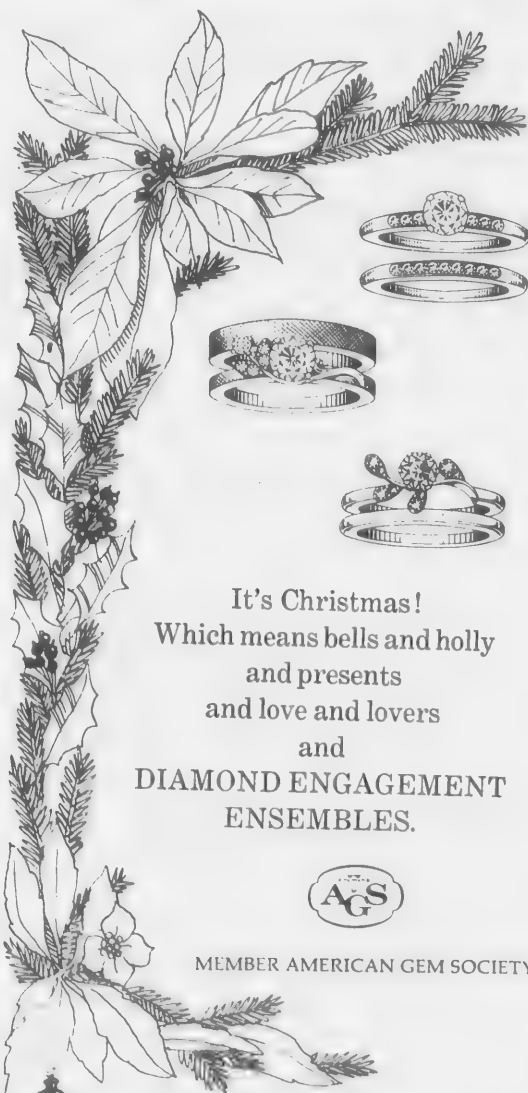

Rathbun Unloads

Jimmy Rathbun emerged as the individual high scorer for the opening night, drilling the nets for 19 points as Baptist socked St. Augustine F by a 23-11 count.

Bob Dufault lent some assistance with a third quarter basket, and Palmer hit a brace of fourth period charity tosses.

John Horan was the biggest noise for St. Augustine F with 4 points. Joey Zemis and Chris Valcourt dunked second-half baskets, while Tom Haskard con-

Forfeits

The flu bug dampened the opener for two other teams, who were forced to take forfeit losses when only four players showed up.

Beneficiaries of the forfeits were St. Robert's B, a 2-0 winner over South, and St. Augustine E which gained a 2-0 win over Free.

Enrollment

The Intermediate Division alone is serving approximately 175 boys, while the entire league will have slightly more than 350 in all three divisions.

Schedule

The ranks of the early-season undefeated may not dwindle much next Monday evening, as only one of the nine games matches a pair of unbeaten teams. The game finds West Parish B facing St. Augustine B.

Senior Division

The lone Senior Division clash saw St. Robert's B romp to a 52-18 victory over South Church.

The winners were ahead 17-5, 32-9 and 42-14 at the first three checkpoints.

Frank Griggs was the game-high scorer, pouring through 16 points for St. Robert's. Dave Barrett also scaled twin digits with 10 points.

John Amboian, although hobbled by a sore leg, and pivotman Mark LaLonde canned 8 markers apiece. Jay Caputo contributed 6 and Mike Terrior 4 points to round out the offense.

South featured a well-balanced attack as Steve Mosher netted 5 points, Bob Kilgo 4, Scott Hughes 3, Chris Carlson and Doug Mesler a basket apiece and Bob Stammers two second quarter free throws.

John Sagaser, Jeff Wolfe, Mark Weiner and Andy Cobin also played well for South.

followed by Pete Hager with 11 for the winners. Dana's scoring was distributed between Vito Caiati and Les Mincies with 8 a piece.

The Sweepers scoring machine got into high gear as they coasted to a 60-25 victory over the Pick-ups. Scorers in double figures for the Sweepers were Finn, 15 and Serley, Babine and Dean each with 10. The Pick-ups got an 8 point output from Elliot Bolan.

The third Over 33 Division contest saw a tight ballgame with the Strobes emerging winners 47-46 at the final buzzer. The Strobes were paced by the scoring of Bob MacPherson with 18 points, Jack Roman with 11 and Ted Liszewski with 10. Warriors scoring was paced by Lee with 17 points, Vickers 15 and Canovitch 10.

The 19-32 Division saw the Dudes remain unbeaten as they posted their second straight win. Other contests in this division resulted in victories by the Panthers and Hornets. The Dudes now occupy sole possession of first place.

England with 16 points led a well balanced scoring effort as the Dudes overwhelmed Doherty's 59-32. Jim Lamy and Pat Emery aided with 8 points a piece. The losers got good performances with Paul Schaaque with 15 points and Bill Doherty with 11.

In another contest the Panthers out scored the No-names 69-55. Dan Shlakis with 23 points and Vin Doherty with 22 led all scorers for the winners while Art Yancy contributed 12. No-names scoring was led by Dave Leach, 19 points and Pete Lafond 12 points.

The Hornets - Drivers contest resulted in a low scoring ball game with the Hornets emerging winners 44-32. Hornets scoring was well balanced led by Sam Washburn's 11 points. Pete Mullet tossed in 16 of the 32 Drivers points.

Andover High's Golden Warriors will be playing in the Super Bowl Saturday, having survived another scare by Central Catholic on Thanksgiving Day, the Warriors outlasting the Red Raiders 14-7.

What made the game even more perilous as far as Andover's perfect season mark was concerned was an injury to Warrior Quarterback Jeff Winters in the early moments of the Thanksgiving morning game. Winters suffered a dislocated left shoulder after being hit out-of-bounds early in the first period.

Filling in capably for the injured Winters was Junior Quarterback Mike McCormick and Bill Alexander.

The game was similar to that of a year ago, when Andover brought an undefeated record into the final game of the season against Lawrence Central who had sported a mediocre record. This year Central was 2-8 going into the game. A year ago the final score was Andover 21, Central 14.

Following the injury to Winters, the Warriors began their initial scoring drive, with John Fabiani chalking up a four-yard gain and Dave Tallini pushing through for four yards on a fourth and one situation to keep the drive going.

On a fourth and nine at the Central 29, McCormick passed to John Fabiani to bring the

Warrior In Pain

Andover Quarterback Jeff Winters is assisted from field in pain after suffering dislocated shoulder in opening moments of Thanksgiving Day game against Central Catholic. Winters status for Saturday's Super bowl game is still undecided.

Warrior drive to the 14 from where three plays later Gerry Stable crashed in for the score. Pete Reilly made good on the first of his two conversions.

Andover's second score came in the second period when the Warriors again mounted a drive from their own 26.

Key gainers in the drive were Tallini again for some strong ground gains and a McCormick to Glenn Verrette pass play.

The score came on a McCormick to Glenn Verrette pass to bring the first half to a close with Andover on top 14-0.

The Red Raiders contained the Warrior attack in the second half and with some fancy running by Sam D'Agata, pushed over a score midway through the third period.

In the final quarter, Central made some gains but the Andover defense was equal to the task and held off any further scoring threats.

Despite the snow of last week, the field was in good condition for the game.

overall.

"I think the whole defensive alignment played a fantastic game. Donovan (Tom), Chory (Mike), Murphy (Fran), and Kelly (Scott) all had fine games, and Joe Terranova had the best two-way performance of anybody," Coach Dan Rorke explained.

He also said, "It was the best performance of the season by the team. Danny Brucato and Scott Boeglin played the blocking beautiful in our running game. The J.V.s also showed that they can play with the best of them, coming in and stopping Pentucket from moving the ball and getting some fine running from Whitehead (Kevin), Otis (Charlie) and Gallant (Norm). Dave Stone also played a fine game sacking the quarterback a couple of times. It was a fine season, climaxed by our best two-way game."

This writer would like to congratulate Coach Dan Rorke and his coaching staff for this fine season and the first Thanksgiving Day victory in 17 years. It was quite an improvement over a year's span. In 1973 the Knights were 1-8 and in Coach Rorke's first season they battled back to a 5-5 season.

Football Notes: Freshman Dan Brucato with his two touchdowns gave him a total of six TDs for the season and 36 total points, second only to injured Senior tailback Greg Edwards who had a total of 44. The Knights have lost three games this season by seven points or less. The defense held opponents to 8.4 points a game, while the offense has been scoring 11.1.

This could be the last Thanksgiving Day tilt with Pentucket as there has been speculation that Masconomet could be the Knights foe in 1975.

The Cape Ann League is contemplating making it a close area rivalry. This could mean that Pentucket would be facing Triton and Ipswich would change to facing Hamilton - Wenham. Lynnfield-North Reading, and Amesbury - Newburyport have been long-standing arch rivalries. The series with Pentucket which now stands at two apiece started in 1971 in which the Knights won the opener at 21-13, but lost the last two before winning this season. On Thanksgiving Day in the Cape Ann League, Newburyport came out on top against Amesbury 21-13, thus dead-locking the Indians for first place in the league at 8-1 apiece.

Boys' Hoop League To Open

Delayed this year because of the opening of programs in the new Andover-North Andover YMCA building, the YMCA Basketball League programs for boys of the two towns will get under way on Jan. 4.

As formerly, programs will be offered in four age divisions. Boys 8 years of age will participate in a coaching of basic skills program with informal intra-squad play in anticipation of more formal competition next year. All other boys will participate in league competition of a formal nature with awards for members of the top placing teams. Age divisions include: Pee Wees 9 and 10 years; Juniors 11 and 12 years; Intermediates 13 and 14 years.

As an experiment this year, the program will be offered at each of the YMCA gymnasiums, with each age group served in both locations, if numbers warrant. Full privilege YMCA members will be centered at the new building and all others will be at the Brook St. facility, with possibilities of playing some games at opposite locations in the latter stages of competition.

Registrations for programs in both buildings open at the new YMCA office, 165 Haverhill St., Andover on Dec. 17. In addition, registrations of boys who are not Full Privilege members will be accepted on Friday, Dec. 20, 3-5 p.m. at the YMCA buildings at 10 Brook St., Andover and 33 Johnson St., North Andover (Community Center).

Russian Christmas

In Russia, Christmas season is a time for family reunions and children's parties. The high point of the merriment is at midnight when a sleeping hen is brought into the warm kitchen from the cold roost and placed on the floor amidst five piles of grain.

While the hen is still sleepy, she selects the piles which represent wealth, poverty, death, marriage and a life of single blessedness.

The West Parish basketball team last weekend, edging Augustine's of Lawrence, 23-3, in community center play.

The league victory was West's first-place finish.

The game was a close one from the opening whistle, and it took a behind effort by West to pull it out.

The game was tied one quarter, as the teams traded baskets in three from single buckets. West's Mike McDonald, Scott Ted Kelley and West.

St. Augustine, in the home court, edged the half. Steve D. Sherman and G. flipped in two-point shots. Scott Nolin swished a toss, for West.

The Andover coach from a zone to a defense in the third stop the outside shot. Hagan, whose bombs produced points for St. Augustine.

The strategy worked who was held scoreless in the second half by Steve.

But the rest of the team suddenly caught up to a 28-21 lead through the period.

West Parish inched in, however, and pulled a 31 deadlock after the

W. Parish Lifts Record To 4-0

The West Parish intermediate basketball team lifted its out-of-town record to 4-0 over the weekend, edging past St. Augustine's of Lawrence 46-42 and bombing St. Theresa's of Lawrence, 23-3, in Jewish Community Center Biddy League play.

The league victory boosted West's first-place ledger to 3-0.

The game against St. Augustine's was nip-and-tuck from the opening tap to the final whistle, and it took a come-from-behind effort by West Parish to pull it out.

The game was tied 11-11 after one quarter, as Chris Doherty tossed in three free throws and single buckets were hooped by Mike McDonald, Steve Doherty, Ted Kelley and Tim Plass of West.

St. Augustine, playing on its home court, edged ahead 21-18 at the half. Steve Doherty, Mike Sherman and Glen Johnson flipped in two-pointers, while Scott Nolin swished a charity toss, for West.

The Andover club switched from a zone to a man-to-man defense in the third quarter to stop the outside shooting of Billy Hagan, whose long outside bombs produced 12 first-half points for St. Augustine.

The strategy worked on Billy, who was held scoreless in the second half by Steve Doherty.

But the rest of the Lawrence team suddenly caught fire, jumping to a 28-21 lead midway through the period.

West Parish inched back slowly, however, and pulled into a 31-31 deadlock after three quarters.

Chris Doherty pumped in five points, Ted Kelley four and Tim Plass three to power the offense.

The clubs traded baskets until the final minute, when Steve Doherty hit 3-of-4 foul shots in clutch, 1-and-1 situations, and Tim Plass banked in a lay-up at the end for insurance.

Steve Doherty topped the well-balanced West scoring parade with 11 points. Chris Doherty canned 10 points, Ted Kelley 9, Tim Plass 7, Mike McDonald 4, Mike Sherman 2, Glen Johnson 2 and Scott Nolin 1 point.

West had little trouble with St. Augustine's "Ohio" press, but the losers did manage a slim advantage off the boards.

In the third straight Jewish Community Center victory, West Parish sped to a 14-0 halftime lead and coasted from there.

Chris Doherty poured through 10 points, the majority of them in the early going, to lead all scorers.

Ted Kelley dropped in 6 points, D. Kelley swished 4 points, Tim Plass had a solo bucket and Mike Sherman tossed in a free throw.

Bob Heidt also contributed a fine floor game for West, which has now outscored three J.C.C. opponents by a healthy 86-13 margin.

West Parish also opened its Andover Church League schedule this past Monday.

This coming Sunday West will square off against St. Mary's of Lawrence in Biddy League action.

Non-league games find West Parish at the North Suburban YMCA in Woburn for a pair of contests on Saturday.

'Stars Of Christmas' At Museum

Once a year the Hayden Planetarium at Boston's Museum of Science yields to the tradition and mystery that surround the holiday season.

For its December program, from the 10th through the 29th, the Planetarium focuses on "Stars of Christmas."

Instead of talking about pulsars, quasars, or the atmosphere of Mars, the Planetarium highlights the winter heavens and the Star of Bethlehem. Various phenomena that might account for that celestial event are considered. A comet, a supernova, or a triple conjunction of planets are among the possibilities.

The musical background, too, differs from the eerie sounds of space travel programs or the classical crescendos of history-based presentations. Instead, Christmas carols bring their appealing warmth to a picture of snow drifting over steeples and roofs of a New England village.

The program includes a traditional rendering of St. Nicholas and his reindeer, flying through the skies, and a whimsical drawing of elves at work at the North Pole.

The preparations for Christmas taking place at the top of the world are also a part of the special children's program to be given Dec. 13 and 20 at 5 p.m. "The Winter Wishing Star" is the only program in the year to which children under five are admitted and admitted free.

Regular Planetarium programs are: Mon., 11 a.m.; Tues. + Sat., 11 and 2:45 p.m.; Sun., 12:15 and 2:45 p.m.; and Fri. night at 8.

The Pinata

Mexican children gather around the "pinata," a brightly decorated earthenware bowl resembling the face of an animal or humorous character and filled with candy, fruit, nuts and small gifts. They take turns trying to break the "pinata" with a stick, and when they do, they keep the treasures.

New Book List On Winter Sports

Winter sports will be the subject of our new suggested book list to be displayed near the card catalogue in the main reading room of the library. Books on skiing (downhill and cross-country), hockey, figure skating and snowmobiling will be featured, so come in and get some great ideas for reading about these sports. The sampler was prepared by Gwen Smith, a staff member of Memorial Hall Library and will be on display for the entire month of December.

Community Christmas Concert

Tuesday evening Dec. 17 at 7:15 p.m. will be the time of our annual Christmas concert to be given in the main reading room of the library. As is customary, senior citizens will be our special guests and the public is cordially invited.

The concert features the string section of the Merrimack Valley Philharmonic with Joseph Pulvina conducting and is financed by a grant from the Musicians Performance Trust Fund of the Recording Institute through Musicians Local 327.

Great Books Program

The final meeting of the Great Books Program series takes place on Tuesday, Dec. 10 at 7:30 p.m. at the library. Discussion leader Robert Rockwell will talk about Albert Camus' Myth of Sisyphus. If you enjoy reading and good books, come in and join us.

Consumer Education Package

The library now has available for groups only a new consumer education kit of film strips, cassettes and pamphlets. Anyone who is interested in taking this out should stop by and inquire at the reference desk. There is a combination cassette and tape recorder that can be used with the package.

Simon Comedy On Lowell Stage

The theatrical group of Lowell Technological Institute, The Players, will present Neil Simon's highly rated comedy, "Come Blow Your Horn," in three separate performances this week.

Open to the public, the comedy is scheduled for December 5-7 at 8 p.m. and will be held in the Student Union Building, 100 Pawtucket St., Lowell, on the third floor.

The L.T.I. presentation has been entered in the American College Theatre Festival competition, to be held later this year.

Children's Room News

By Jan Johnson

You Can Do It, our informal crafts class, meets again this week, Saturday, Dec. 7, with a slightly different format. This time children in grades 2-6 are invited to come at 10 to help us decorate for the holiday season. This time you don't have to bring anything but a willingness to have fun and be helpful. Of course you may bring a friend.

We wish a Happy Hanukkah to all of you who celebrate it. A small display of Hannukah books is available at the Children's Room. Drop by and take one home.

Parents, at this time of year you need all the help you can get in the job of purchasing toys. In the clipping file on the Parents'

Shelf we have a reprint of an article found in the Nov. 1974 Redbook magazine called "How to Choose Toys." Be sure to take a 23 minute to read it. You'll be glad you did.

The authentic Jefferson Cup.

In 1810, Thomas Jefferson designed a handsome, round-bottomed drinking cup. He commissioned a Virginia silversmith to craft eight cups in silver lined with gold. Jefferson treasured them highly, and bequeathed seven to his daughter for her children.

Stieff faithfully reproduced the eight-ounce Jefferson Cup (as well as two-ounce miniatures), for you and your family. It is the only authentic reproduction available—truly something to treasure and hand down.

Protests Milk Price Decision

Harold G. Helmboldt, general manager of Yankee Milk, protested vigorously the recent recommended decision on Class I prices in an exception filed with the Secretary of Agriculture today. Helmboldt called attention to the fact that the basic formula price has not increased seasonally and that farmers caught in today's cost-price squeeze are already making plans to liquidate their dairy enterprise as soon as their hay and silage is fed out. He stated that the establishment of the proposed level of $7.50 as a floor under the basic formula price would stabilize milk prices and prevent the violent changes in price that have been taking place.

Helmboldt urged the Secretary of Agriculture to establish the $7.50 basic price which would yield a Class I price at city plants in New England of $10.48 through March, in his final decision in order to restore confidence in the Federal Order pricing mechanism and to forestall disaster for dairy farmers.

What Our Readers Say-

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

From information given in the papers, there seems to be a misunderstanding amongst police as to what is the purpose of overtime pay.

Throughout the labor movement for the improvement of working conditions, the reason for overtime is stated to be two fold 1) it is to penalize the employer for not planning his work so that the workers can count on a certain and definite time of work each week and its corollary, a certain and definite time off each week and 2) to promote the health and well being of the employee by not having to work more than 8 hours a day or forty hours a week that having been found to be the amount of time that can be put into a job with the best health conditions ensuing. Later a third reason came to the fore. By holding the work week to five days of eight hours each, it gives the bread winner a reasonable amount of time for him to be with and in his family.

Locally, as I recall, police sought a six day week, four on and two off, so that they could have more time with their family.

When acquiescence was obtained for the 4-2 arrangement it was but a short time later that the police were again back on a 5 day "week." However, the fifth day was at overtime in addition to the full pay that had been paid for the five day week previously.

To pay these increases as I understand it, Federal Sharing money, an idea sold to the public for cutting home property taxes, is being used. Overtime has become the order of the day, property taxes have had little relief.

It is a puzzle then that the police should claim that somehow they are entitled to overtime when the record is that such pay, far from being a means to increase the employees pay is, and ought to be a penalty upon the employer, in this case Town Meeting, for not arranging work schedules so that the employee has security against being overworked and being called to work at most any time or, in other words, being required to work under a policy of disarray.

This is especially so considering that the record suggests that it is more policemen working, especially foot patrolmen, not more overtime that is needed.

Anyhow, maybe both sides can get together on some such plan as this: devise a figure that is a composite representation of the amount of criminal activity in town. Then say, that for each 4 per cent reduction in this figure, the police will have earned and be paid a 3 per cent increase in wage rates. Such plans have many counterparts in the private sector of community affairs.

For Those Of Us Who Are Older

The Haven is sponsoring its very own Christmas Party for all Andover citizens over 60, Tuesday, Dec. 17, at 6 p.m. in West Junior High School. It will cost each participant $2 for dinner and an evening of entertainment, door prizes and Christmas caroling. Free bus transportation will leave The Haven and Chestnut Court about 5:30. But - No one will be admitted without a ticket. The tickets may be purchased at The Haven, 25 Barnard Street every day between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Deadline for purchasing tickets is Dec. 12. Get yours now. Remember - Tuesday, Dec. 17, 6 p.m. at West Junior High.

Two workshops will be held at The Haven - each open to the first 20 who sign up. Sponsored by the Andover Recreation / Community Schools Department, the first is a Christmas workshop, making tree ornaments out of bread dough and taught by Marti Schmidt. It will be held Wednesday, Dec. 11 at 1:30 p.m. The second workshop is scheduled for Tuesday, Dec. 17 at 10 a.m. and is in still life and figure drawing, taught by Marilyn Stella. We assure you no art, talent or experience is necessary to enjoy this mini-course. It is an opportunity to develop your powers of observation. Again, only the first 20 who sign up for each of these courses can be accommodated. Sign up for both of them now at The Haven.

The next mini-clinic will be conducted at The Haven Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 17 from 2 to 4 p.m. Appointment is required and may be made by telephoning The Haven (475-3968).

An advance date to put on your calendar - Dec. 31 - a pot luck lunch at The Haven. Bring whatever you want - a hot dish or a salad or rolls or a dessert - whatever you want, but come!

Agonizing Process

It is probably difficult to determine what affect a major facility will have on a community, when it is in the planning stage.

There is little doubt, for instance, that the construction of the new water treatment plant in Andover was planned simply to meet the needs of the community and possibly aid some nearby towns and cities, should the occasion arise.

But now, local officials are faced with a decision of determining whether a new industry will be permitted to make substantial draft on Andover's water supply, with the plant just coming on line.

Representatives of the Carr Company appeared before the selectmen this week to explain plans for a new $6 million total industrial complex for Lowell Junction which hinges on whether the town will be willing to supply what amount to about a million gallons of water per day for their industrial process.

The selectmen now are weighing the decision based on several factors.

One includes this community's obligation, if any, to neighboring communities in need of water supply.

Another, whether the town intends to accelerate toward capacity operation of the treatment plant, meaning a moving up of the schedule to take water from the Merrimack river for processing.

Chairman Milton Greenberg termed it a decision to agonize over.

There is little doubt that the town could use some additional tax revenue from an industrial source. But, can the town adequately afford to feed water, despite the revenue derived from that resource, to a single industrial plant?

Some of the water will be recycled by the proposed industrial firm, but even so, its needs are great.

Hardly, could the town have anticipated such a problem when the treatment plant was thought of several years ago, and it seems logical to assume that the availability and adequacy of Andover's water supply was a motivating factor in the decision by Carr executives to relocate their facility here from Cambridge.

The decision to be made by the local officials is a weighty one, in view of the fact that quite possibly the Carr representation to the selectmen Monday night was primarily a courtesy.

The zoning allows the firm to build and whether the town can actually use the water problem as a deterrent in their decision to locate here, is at best questionable.

The Warriors

This is a big weekend for Andover sports followers, with the high school's Golden Warrior football team in Super Bowl competition for the second consecutive year.

It would be easy to say good luck and let it go at that, but we feel the team has already given the town much to be proud of in a successful undefeated season and another Merrimack Valley Conference crown.

Sports activity has an unusual way of bringing out the best in a youngster. With proper people to guide these young men, the result is even better.

Such is the case at Andover High where football dominance has been reached these past few years, through a combination of good playing talent and able direction from Head Coach Dick Collins and his staff.

That they are basically gentlemen sportsmen, is self-evident.

That they rise to the occasion is another proven quality.

They are a team, dependent of course, on some of the spectacular, but working together as a unit to accomplish the end result victory.

This was proven when Quarterback Jeff Winters was injured in the opening moments of the Thanksgiving Day game, and his shoes were filled by Bill Alexander and Mike McCormick.

Earlier in the season there were injuries to T.J. Stamas and Alexander, which could have hurt the team, but acting as a determined unit, the Warriors retained their winning ways.

Much of the effort is due to the principles instilled by Collins and his coaching staff. The work on the field is carried out by the youthful athletes themselves.

If some of these words sound vaguely familiar and repetitious, it is purely intentional.

We are prone toward the theory of crediting deserved youth with proper recognition which they have merited, rather than displaying in headlines the errant few.

This team of Golden Warriors who will be holding Andover's banner high on Saturday, is a group of young men who have instilled a feeling of pride in the entire community through their example.

We are proud of them and wish them every success on Saturday.

Off The Top Of The Desk

If you noticed a thin layer of ice on some ponds Tuesday, it might serve as a reminder to issue a warning to youngsters about safety on ice.

Ponds, lakes, streams, etc., look awfully appealing to youngsters at this time of year, but are far from safe. It will take a good consistent cold spell to make such surfaces even moderately useable for recreational use.

Thus it behooves parents to warn youngsters to remain off the ice, despite its appeal, to avert tragedy.

Santa's entrance into North Andover last Saturday was particularly appropriate.

His transportation this year, was through the traditional sleigh, which one expects the jolly old red-suited Christmas hero to be riding.

For the most part, Santa has been making his arrival in all sorts of modern conveyance in recent years, and his "vehicle" supplied by Bruin Hill Farm this year, seemed particularly appropriate.

Things were a bit different in sports circles in Greater Lawrence this Thanksgiving Day.

While Andover was again winning its annual Turkey Day battle with Central Catholic, again with a little difficulty, both Lawrence High and North Andover were able to get back on the holiday winning side.

It has been about 17 years since the athletes of North Andover and Lawrence and their followers have been able to savor victory with their turkey dinner.

The nation may be in a recession, but you would never know it from the amount of major companies flocking to Lowell Technological Institute to interview students for job placement.

A call to President Everett V. Olsen revealed that thus far this year 895 students have been interviewed by close to 50 companies, an increase of twenty per cent over the past several years.

Director of Placement Herman V. LaMark states that of those interviewed approximately one-third have been sought for secondary interviews, which is tantamount to assurance they will be hired.

LaMark believes that it is the type of education being received at L.T.I. which is attracting interviewers. This is borne out by a remark of a General Dynamics interviewer who said, "We like Lowell Tech students because they are not afraid to get their hands dirty."

"The pedestrian's ability to see as well as to perceive objects is greatly decreased in rain, snow or fog, and this is a good reason to exercise caution in bad weather," pointed out David J. Christensen, Executive Vice President of the Automobile Club of Merrimack Valley.

The AAA official referred to a prize-winning poster design in the 29th annual School Traffic Safety Poster Contest, done by Darlene Borsotti, age 15, a ninth-grade student at the American School for the Deaf in West Hartford, Connecticut. "Seeing as well as being seen is an important factor to drivers and pedestrians alike in recognizing potentially dangerous traffic situations. The poster shows that although the girl is dressed warmly for the cold weather, her vision is not blocked by excess clothing. Care should also be used when crossing icy or rain slicked streets. This means taking an extra minute to be sure that the road is clear of approaching traffic."

Mr. Christensen continued by saying that drivers must also beware in inclement weather. "Reduced visibility and poor road conditions necessitate slow speeds, as stopping distances on such surfaces are greatly increased. Drivers should always be prepared to make a safe stop. And remember - the holiday season is a time of heavy traffic. Let's all work together for safety."

Ted Hood, who skippered the Courageous, America's Cup winner, will be honored by Wentworth Institute, his alma mater, on Tuesday, Dec. 10, at 12:15 p.m.

Trustees and the Wentworth Alumni Assn. will hold a luncheon for the Marblehead captain in Watson Auditorium at Wentworth.

A plaque in recognition of his sailing achievements will be presented to Hood during the luncheon by Dr. Edward T. Kirkpatrick, Wentworth president, and Norman R. Tache, Wentworth Alumni Assn. president.

Hood, a graduate of the building construction technology course in the class of 1950 at Wentworth, operates a worldwide sail-making business and shipyard in Marblehead with his father, Steadman Hood.

The Wentworth alumnus is the only individual to ever have won four of the biggest competitions in sailing - The America's Cup this past summer; The Mallory Trophy in 1956, the national smallboat championship; The Bermuda Ocean Race in 1968; and The Southern Ocean Racing Circuit in 1974.

Carl Nickerson, director of alumni services at Wentworth, is luncheon chairman.

Down the Years with The Townsman

75 Years Ago - December, 1899

Papers are about to be passed on the property at the corner of Abbot and Phillips streets for the Misses Mary and Bessie Means, daughters of the late William G. Means of the Manchester, N.H. Locomotive Works. It is anticipated the new owners will build a handsome residence there.

Abbott Erving has accepted a position with a huge Canadian lumber firm and left town Tuesday morning to take charge of a camp about 100 miles north of Montreal.

William M. Wood gave each of the persons in his employ a turkey for a Thanksgiving dinner last week.

Several residents of the town have asked the selectmen to take action against the downtown merchant who is intent on erecting a billboard in the center of town. It is felt it is not in keeping with the character of the center.

Eight or ten young people from Andover attended the "Hurdy Gurdy" party given by the young gentlemen members of the class of 1897, Johnson High School in the town hall last Saturday night.

50 Years Ago - December, 1924
Michael O'Connell, an employee of the Tyer Rubber Co., witnessed the Holy Cross-Boston College football game Saturday. His son, Francis O'Connor, played the entire game for Holy Cross.

All outstanding taxes for the year 1923 must be paid by the end of this month in order that the collector may close the books. Under the new law, passed in April 1923, taxes are not allowed to remain unpaid over a period of one year.

The school committee, at its meeting this week, approved the monthly warrant totalling $12,487, and adopted a resolution noting the death of Dr. Douglas Gordon Crawford, a member of the committee who died.

Among those who saw Holy Cross defeat Boston College Saturday were John Doherty, William Doherty, Charles Bowman, Joseph Hickey, J. Everett Collins and William McDonald.

Applications for membership in the Barnstormers, local theatrical group, should be made to Fred E. Cheever, Bancroft Road, before Dec. 12.

25 Years Ago - December, 1949

The school committee has voted to continue track as a varsity sport at the urging of the Boosters Club which has been underwriting much of the activity. A review of the entire athletic setup, including finances, is to be made by the school board.

Following a conference with Police Chief George A. Dane, it has been decided by the selectmen to place a stop sign at the intersection of Summer and Whittier streets. The traffic will be stopped on the Summer street side.

A plan to have Rogers brook either enclosed or fenced, is being considered by the selectmen and board of public works, after a Ballardvale woman complained of almost falling into the brook recently.

A late spurt in building this year is expected to have the new construction figures compare favorably with those of a year ago. As of Nov. 30, $1,533,535 in building permits had been issued by Inspector Ralph Coleman.

10 Years Ago - December, 1964

Creation of parking commission responsible for making recommendations on meter policy, is being recommended by a special parking survey committee of the Andover Chamber of Commerce.

Teachers will receive a $400 increase in salary next year, according to a report from the

'Nutteracker'

The Boston Ballet's holiday production of "The Nutteracker" is back for the eleventh consecutive year from Dec. 14 to 22
at the Music Hall. Arthur Fiedler, too, is back, conducting the Boston Ballet Orchestra as he has done for every performance of "The Nutteracker" in the past ten years

Literally millions of parents and children the world over have included a performance of "The Nutteracker" in their holiday celebration since it was first presented on Dec. 17, 1892, at the Maryinsky Theatre (now the Kirov) in Russia.

The box office is open Monday through Saturday.

It's Istanbul now, that much we know.
But it takes teenager Umit Cinali to remind us that his hometown, formerly Constantinople, not only had two names, but straddles two continents as well.
Umit lived in Europe when he left last summer to become an American Field Service student at Andover High. When he returns home, after graduating with the senior class here, he'll live in Asia, where his parents are building a new apartment.
American Blue jeans and a Levi jacket belie Umit's cosmopolitan nature, and Andover, it seems, is quite a switch from the metropolitan world he left behind.

There are at least 10 movie theatres within a five-minute walk of his home, for instance, and he's lived in an apartment all his life. He is also accustomed to going to school wearing a blazer and tie.
Here, Umit lives in a house - at 241 Andover Street with his American "parents," the William Deacons, and two "brothers," Wayne, 19, a graduate of Andover High, and Mark, 16, who's a student there now.
This is also Umit's first year ever in public school (He has most recently been in an English School), and he appears to be having little trouble with studies. In fact, he thinks he will probably get many A's in his course heavy in science and math.

He admits to not liking social studies very much, while he "has fun" with science, and he has scored high in math competitions with the Math Club here.

In addition to his class load at Andover High, he also scoots over to Phillips Academy a couple times a week for a little organic chemistry.

While he likes to practice soccer, and has run cross-country once or twice, Umit says he has little time for sports here. Watching baseball, he says, could put him to sleep, though he does get a kick out of studying the strategy behind football.

Umit will attend the university next year upon his return to Turkey, and will probably major in mechanical engineering. He may return to the U.S. after three or four years, he says, to take up nuclear engineering.

"I'm against bombs," he says, but adds that the demand for peaceful nuclear power is worldwide. He is especially interested in its implications for the study of space and the energy shortage. His real brother, now 17 and in the American High School in Istanbul, is also planning to come to the U.S. to Medical school, Umit says.

Their father is a lawyer in Istanbul and their mother, formerly a physics and math teacher, is now a businesswoman, handling family investments.

Umit's American father, Bill Deacon, teaches chemistry at Andover High.

American eating habits, Umit says, have also taken a little getting used to. He says he often gets the raised eye-brow for his turned-over fork, the European style of eating.

In Turkey, he goes on, people are more concerned with taste than calories, and food tends to have a little more zip.

While he claims not to be much of a chef at home, he has fixed "kofte," a ground meat mixture featuring black peppers and onion, for his family here.

Preparing For Exhibit

Jan and G. Kerlin Miller, Andover residents for the past five years, review some art work preparatory to their exhibit now through Jan. 3 at the Andover Gallery. Both studied at Syracuse University. Mr. Miller most often works in stoneware, while Jan does figurative work on acrylics and graphics.

Christmas Mail Guide Established

Boston and four other districts in the United States have been chosen for a very special Christmas experiment - public use of a self-adhesive, precanceled Christmas postage stamp to increase postal efficiency and improve service.

The stamp itself is an attractive rendering of the Dove of Peace weathervane which sits atop Mount Vernon, home of George Washington. The pressure-sensitive adhesive used is similar to that on supermarket labels and bumper stickers.

In order for this experiment to work, it is very important that you bundle all your mail with the address facing upward. In this way the postoffice can avoid the facing canceling process usually required and quickly speed holiday mail to its destination.

The department asks 'help us help you' this Christmas by following these steps:

1. PREPARATION: use precanceled, self-adhesive Christmas stamps. Always use ZIP code. Place on same line as City and State.

2. MAIL EARLY. Suggested mailing dates to assure pre-Christmas delivery are:

By Dec. 10, Surface parcels within the United States (except Alaska and Hawaii).

By Dec. 15, Surface greeting cards within the United States (including Alaska and Hawaii).

By Dec. 21, Airmail parcels and letters within the United States (except Alaska and Hawaii).

3. BUNDLE: stack and tie each bundle with the appropriate delivery destination band. IMPORTANT: DO NOT BUNDLE precanceled Dove of Peace mail with the conventionally stamped mail.

4. FACE: make sure your cards and letters are stacked and tied with the postage stamp in the upper right hand corner so that envelopes all face in the same direction for quicker postal processing.

Christmas Cards

Written Christmas greetings date back to the early 1300's when English schoolboys penned holiday letters to their parents as an exercise. Then, in 1846, too busy to write his usual Christmas letters, Sir Henry Copley sent out printed cards, the first of billions now sent out all over the world.

Saltonstall Wants Ballot Made Easier

Senator William L. Saltonstall (R-Manchester) filed a package of legislation today aimed at making balloting easier for the voter. In filing these bills Saltonstall stated, "Because many voters had trouble deciphering the ballot questions at the Nov. 5 election, I have filed a bill that would require a brief descriptive title to be printed over each question on the ballot and on the information about ballot questions mailed to all voters before the election."

In reference to a bill on ballot stickers Saltonstall pointed out, "A sticker candidate has several strikes against him from the start, and this bill attempts to address itself to some of them. First, the voter must mark an X next to the sticker after he puts it on the ballot; this is not always clear to voters. Second, not all stickers will fit on the tape roll provided for write-ins on voting machines. And third, when a sticker is used with a punch card in a data processing system there is no easy way for the voter to indicate which office the sticker should be counted for."

Saltonstall continued, "Another interesting problem I encountered on election eve was that there was no central state tabulation facility for election returns. A group of newspapers, television and radio stations operated an "election central" facility, but information gathered here was not available to the public." Saltonstall's bill would require the Secretary of State to designate a central tabulation facility which would make information available to all candidates.

Another Saltonstall bill would have the Secretary of State keep an updated list of all local acceptance laws and mail it annually to all cities and towns.

What can you really afford to buy? There was a time when weekly income was considered to be a sort of guide, but that was before families were making payments on one or two automobiles, a color television, and a swimming pool. Credit extension has become a way of life for all, yet you may be surprised to learn that there is still a choice within your price range. Costs run higher the closer you get to metropolitan cities, because land is scarcer. Newly developing out-lying areas offer more for the money since land is cheaper and building is being done in quantity. It pays to look around.

Be properly advised in your real estate negotiations. Come to BOXTOP REALTY, Olde Andover Village, 93 Main St. for assistance and guidance when selling or buying property. Member of MLS. The Christmas Concert at Old South Church, Copley Square, has become a tradition for the Chorus pro Musica which presents Christmas music that is rarely heard, as well as more familiar carols. Featured in this performance are Benjamin Britten's A Boy Was Born and Kirke Mechem's Seven Joys of Christmas. The Chorus will also perform arrangements of more familiar carols by Holst, Praetorius and Buxtehude. In keeping with tradition, the audience will be invited to join the Chorus in singing the Hallelujah Chorus from Handel's Messiah.

The Christmas Concert is open to the public free of charge. Donations to the Chorus pro Musica will be accepted at the performance. For further information call 267-7442.

Decoupage Exhibit

The Art Department of the November Club will meet Monday, Dec. 9, at the home of Mrs. Frank J. Mathias, 7 Brentwood Circle. A demonstration and exhibit of decoupage will be given by Mrs. Frank Cole.

Christmas Lessons

Cheryl Hunt and Monique Vallee check over some Christmas figures as part of the annual Christmas school program which opened this week at Faith Lutheran church.

'Santa's Village' At Christ Church Saturday

Christ Church, Andover, will open its doors for their annual Christmas Fair on Dec. 7 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. "Santa's Village" will be a complete Christmas shopping store. The members of the parish have worked for a year to produce an array of gifts, toys and decorations at reasonable prices. Free babysitting will be available. For older children there will be movies, puppet shows, penny candy, and games organized by the church youth groups in the downstairs Christmas arcade. Luncheon for the family will be served from 11 a.m. - 1 p.m.

An auction will highlight the afternoon at 1:30 p.m. Auctioneer Philip Allen will be offering an antique barber pole, Victorian furniture, working appliances, lawn mowers and other choice items.

The ever popular Country Kitchen will have roast beef, ham, homemade breads, applesauce, beans and salads. There will be a bakery table and cheese table. Choose a washable stuffed animal, hobby horse, or wooden toy for the children on your list from the Children's Table. Items on the Gift Table will delight the eye as well as the pocketbook. Other features include a stitch and knit table; shop for new and used jewelry table; a complete selection of used books will be on sale; as well as four rooms of attic treasures and used toys. Christmas wreaths and plants will also be available.

Co-chairmen for the 1974 Fair at Christ Church on Central Street are Mrs. Allen Gable and Mrs. Gordon McAdams.

Advent Trilogy Service

St. Augustine's Parish, Andover, will present an Advent Trilogy on the Sunday evenings of Dec. 8, 15 and 22 at 7 p.m. in St. Augustine's Church.

Guest speaker for these three evenings will be Fr. Donald X. Burt, O.S.A., Dean of Humanities at Merrimack College. Fr. Burt will in successive talks develop the themes of "Christmas As Seen Through the Eyes of the Older Adult," "Christmas As Seen Through the Eyes of the Adult," and "Christmas As Seen Through the Eyes of the Child."

Following each talk there will be a paraliturgical celebration correlated to that evening's theme.

The parish invites everyone to participate in this program as part of their preparation for and celebration of the coming holiday.

Carol Festival Sunday

Following a very successful Hymn Festival which was held earlier this year, the Free Christian Church will present a Carol Festival this coming Sunday-evening at 7:30.

Favorite carols will be sung by the congregation, the choir and several soloists, interspersed with Christmas music on the organ, piano and concertina.

After the Carol Festival there will be a Fellowship Hour in the Upper Parish Hall at which time refreshments will be served. An open invitation is extended to all to share in this delightful evening.

Festival For Women Saturday

A program for women sponsored by feminists in the Newburyport area will be held on Saturday, Dec. 7, at the Newburyport YMCA. The Festival of Women will begin at 9 a.m. and continue through the evening with a pot-luck and coffee house featuring feminist musicians and poets.

Daytime activities will include a body - awareness workshop and a consciousness raising workshop for women new to feminism.

A minimal fee will be charged. For additional information call Helen Allen, Greenwood Road, Andover.

Clean your kitchen thoroughly and often - dismantling all equipment that comes apart. A food safety tip from the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture.

Rev. J. Everett Bodge

Ordination Anniversary To Be Observed Sunday

South Church in Andover, United Church of Christ, celebrates this Sunday, Dec. 8, the thirtieth anniversary of the ordination to the ministry of its Senior Pastor, the Reverend J. Everett Bodge. Among other guests at the 10:30 a.m. Service, the Reverend Avery D. Post, Minister and President of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ will be the guest preacher. A reception for Rev. and Mrs. Bodge will be held in Fellowship Hall following the morning service.

In thirty years of ministry, Reverend Bodge has served United Church of Christ, formerly Congregational, churches in Hopkinton, Melrose, Columbus, Ohio, and Bronxville, New York. In all these years he has been active in denominational work at national, state, and local levels, and in local community affairs as well.

Reverend Bodge took his Bachelor of Sacred Theology Degree from Crane Theological School of Tufts University in 1944. Now in his eighth year as minister of South Church in Andover, he has most recently been pursuing a Doctorate of Ministry in a program at Andover-Newton Theological School specifically designed for ministers "on the job." The Diaconate of South Church, which has planned the celebration, is looking forward to an extra large congregation for this special occasion.

Advent Workshop Sunday

Christ Church, of Andover, will hold its annual Advent Workshop on Sunday, Dec. 8, from 3 p.m. - 5 p.m.

The Advent Workshop, a family event, will begin at 3 p.m. in the church's Parish Hall. The workshop is a time to be together as a family and to have fun preparing for the Christmas season. At the Workshop, family members may prepare advent wreaths; dip candles, make simple decorations and banners; string popcorn and make puppets.

A potluck supper follows at 5:30 p.m. with each family requested to bring a main dish. A cover charge per family will be collected to help defray expenses.

To Honor Rev. Upton

The Rev. John G. Upton will be honored at the second program in the annual concert series at Christ Episcopal Church, Andover, Sunday night at 7:30 p.m.

Fr. Upton has resigned as rector of St. Augustine's Church, Lawrence, to become rector of St. Mary's Church, Provincetown.

At the reception, following the concert, Rev. J. Edison Pike, rector of Christ Church, and convenor of District one of the Diocese of Massachusetts, will thank Fr. Upton on behalf of the clergy of the district for his contribution to church life in this area. District one consists of the Episcopal churches stretching along the Merrimack River from Lawrence to Newburyport.

There is no charge of admission and the public is invited to attend.

Speaker

Richard S. Burdick, vice president, Corporate Development at WCVB-TV, Needham and director of Boston Broadcasters, Inc. will speak at Northern Essex Community College, Haverhill, on Thursday evening, Dec. 5, at 8 p.m. in the cafeteria located in the College Center.

Burdick's topic will be "It's A Crime About Crime!" Since crime is one of the top-ranking concerns of people today, Burdick plans to speak on the confusion surrounding the subject of crime, and what people might be able to do about it.

We introduced our 1974 model Volvos on October 15, 1973. And our list prices today are the same as back then. Once we set the initial price, we didn't raise it. In spite of an 11.5% increase in the national cost-of-living index.

Our do-nothing attitude is in marked contrast to most other car makers who've been retooling prices during the '74 model year. So while our 1974 Volvo was a big value in 1973, imagine the value it is today.

Speech Pathologist To Be Guest

Speech pathologist Robert Shapiro, of the Andover School department, will be on hand as the speaker at the regular second Monday meeting of the Merrimack Valley Association for Children with Learning Disabilities. The 8 p.m. Dec. 9 meeting will be at the Ballard Vale United Church, corner of Hall Ave. and Clark Road, Andover.

Speech pathology, according to Mr. Shapiro, is one of the new "specializations" which have come into being in education, beginning in Andover about twenty years ago. Basically speech pathologists are communication specialists trying to help students use language to communicate. Although it checks such things as hearing and vision it is focused more on the use of language and the problems thereof. The pathologist looks at three basic areas: 1. Comprehension of language presented to the student by sight or sound. 2. The expression of ideas in language. 3. Methods and techniques used to deal with the problems of communication. Mr. Shapiro has had experience in applying his techniques to learning disabled children and will direct some of his remarks to that area.

In line with the Associations usual format there will be ample opportunity for parents and teachers to ask questions from the floor or to meet the speaker over coffee and refreshments.

The MVACLD is active in the greater Lawrence area with particular attention to Lawrence, Methuen, Andover, and No. Andover. Its only activity is to promote help for those children, and adolescents, having a learning problem.

Lifting School Spirit

School spirit is running high this week at Andover High school as the student body prepares to lend support to the Golden Warrior football team in its Saturday morning Super Bowl Date with Salem at B.U. Field, Boston. Here, Mary Keefe and Sandy Healy place a Warrior sign at the school, one of many notes of encouragement visible of the school walls this week.

Second Bowl Game For AHS

Salem is making its first trip to the Bowl.

Winters Has 'Green Light'

One of the biggest keys to the success of Golden Warrior football in 1974 has been senior quarterback Jeff Winters, who dislocated his left shoulder early in the 14-7 Thanksgiving Day victory over Lawrence Central.

For a time it was feared that Jeff, who has set several school passing records this season, would be unable to play Saturday.

"He has received the green light from his doctor and his parents," explained Collins, "but just how well Jeff will be able to operate is another matter."

"He can't do the shoulder any more harm by playing, but it's going to be stiff and sore. It shouldn't affect his passing because he's righthanded, but it will limit him as a running threat," added Collins.

"Right now I couldn't say whether Jeff or Mike McCormick (junior) will start the game, and we also have a third quarterback in Bill Alexander."

Winters closed out the regular season by completing 94-of-178 passes for 1,398 yards and 11 touchdowns, setting new AHS records for completions and passes thrown.

Scott Seero, now at UNH, held the old marks of 88-for-177. He retains the lead in total yardage with 1,573 and touchdowns with 19.

Winters is also Andover's top rusher with 447 yards in 69 carries, although Jeff has also been sacked for 114 yards in losses.

Starting AHS Offense

The Warriors' attack has revolved around the pass, and Winters' favorite target has been Verrette.

Verrette has grabbed 37 passes for 574 yards and nine TDs (54 points), placing him second to Brown University's Bob Farnham in the record books. Farnham snared 59 passes for 1,120 yards and 15 TDs two years ago at A.H.S.

The potent Andover offense piled up 286 points in 10 games.

Salem Offense

The backfield on the young team consists of four juniors. Bill Pinto (6', 165) is the righthanded quarterback, with chief running threat Tim Mroz (5'11", 171) at fullback and Scott Brennan (5'9", 150) at right half. Alternating at left halfback are Al Larrabee (5'9", 165) and Chuck Razney (5'10", 175).

Mroz has eaten up 1,300 yards of turf, topping 100 in eight of the 10 games and hitting a high of 165 in the big win over Gloucester.

Mroz also leads in points scored for Salem with 52, while Bill Pinto has netted 50 points. Pinto has hit on 72-of-116 aeriels, including six touchdowns, and has rushed for 564 additional yards.

AHS Defense

The Andover defense was the stingiest in the MVC, allowing only 78 points. Only Dracut scored more than nine points against the Warriors, erupting for all 22 in the fourth period of a 41-22 loss.

Forming the front line for Andover are ends McDonald and Tallini, along with tackles Alan Sherrad and Paul McIntyre. The middle guard is Tom Henderson, recently returned from a 1½ year stay in Texas.

The linebackers are Kenney, John Drivas and sophomore Gerry Stabile. The halfbacks are Brian Flannery and Alexander, with Verrette at safety.

Among other things, the 1974 Warriors' defensive unit set a school record for interceptions with 27.

"Verrette was tops with six and 100 yards in returns," noted Collins. "In all we had 13 different players pick off at least one pass apiece."

Salem Defense

"We have a complete two-platoon system," related Perrone. "None of our players go both ways, and that's rare in high school."

The Salem defense, which surrendered 71 points and had two shutouts, is bulwarked by hefty tackles Pete Harrington (238 pounds) and junior Sarky Sarkisian (237). The ends are Greg Lavoie (6'3", 185) and Rocky Hurd (204), a junior.

Carl Scott (158) mans the middle guard slot, and according to Perrone is "the toughest 158 pounds anywhere."

Linebackers are seniors Steve Prisky (185), whom Perrone touts as the best in the State, and Mark Dubiel.

The four deep backs are all three-year veterans, namely Mike Duffy, Don Cann, Pete Greaves and Buddy Godjikas.

"Our secondary intercepted 18 passes, and the highlight of their season was holding Gloucester's Jay Palazola to one completion in the second half of that game," expalined Perrone.

Palazola was the only signal-caller in Division II with better statistics than Winters.

Collins' Views

"Everyone looks at this Super Bowl game differently," offered Coach Collins. "We're approaching it as a bonus to the season, something we want the kids to go into and enjoy."

"That doesn't mean we're taking it lightly, however. The coaching staff has put in a lot of time on this one, starting the day after Thanksgiving."

"We are preparing exactly the same as we do for any other game, ready to give it our best shot and let the chips fall where they may," continued Collins. "It's not life and death, but naturally we'd like to win it."

The end result against Memorial last year may provide some added incentive for Andover, also.

"We've traded films with Salem and scouted them against both Gloucester and Beverly," observed Collins.

"They have some big linemen and are a better balanced team than Gloucester (who could have been the opponent had the Whalers defeated Salem). They have few weaknesses."

"They also seem to be a very emotional outfit with plenty of fan support, and that's good," added the AHS helmsman.

Perrone's Views

"It's a great honor to be in the Super Bowl," admitted Perrone. "If we could win it would be great, and we want to down to the last man, but our first objective was to have an undefeated regular season."

"It's the first perfect season for Salem since 1899, and 75 years is a long, long time to wait."

We don't have any superstars on this team, although Pinto is the finest quarterback I've coached in 15 years," continued Perrone. "It's a close-knit group, and it seems that every game someone else emerges as the hero."

The biggest win was over Gloucester, of course, when Larrabee caught a six-yard touchdown pass on fourth down with six seconds to play for the

Dinners On Line In Game

Someone will be eating well after Saturday's Super Bowl game, due to the "agreement" between newly elected Andover Rep. Gerald Cohen and County Sheriff-Elect Robert Cahill of Salem.

The two have agreed to five dinners to be served in an Andover restaurant of Cahill's choice, should Salem win the game on Saturday, while Cohen's quintet will have a choice of Salem restaurants, if the Golden Warriors come out on top.

13-12 win," related Perrone.

"Andover is the best-coached ball club I've seen since I came to Massachusetts. They have that wide-open, run-and-shoot offense with all kinds of complications."

"They force you to make defensive adjustments continually, and they are much more of an offensive threat than Gloucester."

"Winters is impressive, but we have great confidence in our secondary. The pass rush will have to be good, however, because he can riddle you when given time to throw."

"Defensively Andover's strong point is aggressiveness," commented Perrone.

Nickerson Field

Both teams practiced this week at BU, with Andover getting the feel of the astroturf for the first time yesterday from 1-2:45 p.m.

The Warriors will be back there tomorrow (Friday) at the same time, and on all other days have practiced for two hours at AHS.

"I don't like the field," noted Perrone in reference to BU. "I want an enclosed area, and to me its a letdown to play where there are stands only on one side. I feel as though Division I and II should have gotten the Boston College field."

"We've had a tremendous following, with 14,000 at the Gloucester game and 10,000 for Beverly. Half the town of Salem will be at the Bowl game, and to me the openness detracts from the drama and color of the whole thing," offered Perrone.

"I reacted somewhat the same way last year," admitted Collins. "But once we went down there and began playing it seemed like a pretty nice setup."

"In any case, we've got the home bench this year and will be looking across at the empty spaces and highway. Salem will be facing the stands like we were last year," added Collins.

Injuries

In addition to Winters, Andover has two players who will miss the Super Bowl entirely.

T.J. Stamas, a senior end, has been in-and-out all season with a dislocated shoulder and he missed the Turkey Day battle.

Running back Craig Eosefow has missed the last two games with a broken bone in his hand. He might be able to play with a special cast, but even if he could it wouldn't matter because he is the lone player faced with College Board exams Saturday morning.

There are other bumps and bruises, but nothing serious.

"We're 100 per cent healthy with the return of our two defensive ends who missed the Thanksgiving Day game with Beverly," stated Perrone. Hurd suffered a badly-sprained ankle against Gloucester and his lower leg was in a cast for two weeks. He has a slight limp now, but will be playing at practically full speed."

The Records

Salem's 10 victories have come at the expense of Lynn Classical (36-6), Wakefield (14-0), Swampscott (14-0), Saugus (18-7), Danvers (16-8), Marblehead (19-6), Lynn English (16-8), Winthrop (29-6), Gloucester (13-12) and Beverly (36-18).

Andover, meanwhile, has stretched its regular-season victory skein through 27 games with 1974 wins over Pentucket Regional (35-6), Wilmington (14-6), Chelmsford (21-7), Austin Prep (7-6), Methuen (67-6), Tewksbury (40-9), Lawrence (20-8), Dracut (41-22), Billerica (27-7) and Lawrence Central (14-7).

Spirit

School spirit is naturally high at both schools with rallies and dances scheduled.

A parade in downtown Andover was postponed to accommodate the game, and several other events have also been rescheduled.

Saturday is definitely Super Bowl day in Andover!

The Spider's Web

One Christmas Eve long ago, a poor woman grieved because she had no ornaments for her children's Christmas tree. That night, however, a spider covered the tree with a delicate web, which, when touched by the morning sun, turned to gold. Today tinsel strands symbolize the spider's web.

Suspicious Fires Probed

Fire early Saturday night completely destroyed this home owned by Albert E. Thompson, Jr., on Forrest Drive. The fire was one of two of suspicious origin in Andover this week, the other involved a home on Ballardvale Road.

Two more fires of suspicious origin this week, caused almost total destruction to one Andover residence and severely gutted another.

A fire at the 104 Ballardvale Road home owned by Frank Hebert, 31 Bannister Road, Monday noon, is believed to have had its start from fuel from a tank in the cellar, according to investigators.

Saturday evening the home of Alfred E. Thompson, Jr., 3 Forrest Drive, was destroyed in a fire which officials also feel is of suspicious nature.

Lt. Leo Walsh of the state fire marshal's office is assisting local police and fire officials in the investigation of both blazes.

The two fires broke a period of cautious calm in the community which has been plagued by several suspicious fires extending back to September.

Andover investigators have been pursuing a probe of the cases which could lead to court action, but due to the nature of the investigative and court process are unable to divulge any progress on the several suspected arson cases at this time.

The Monday noon fire came as a northeast storm ebbed, but the rains failed to halt the rapid advance of flames which eventually destroyed the personal property of Curtis Cole and Steven O'Dell who had been tenants at the Ballardvale Road property.

Cole, who operates a music store at the Methuen Mall, lost several valuable instruments in the fire, in addition to his clothing and other personal belongings. O'Dell, employed at the Raytheon plant, also lost personal property in the flames.

Firefighters were called to the scene at 11:58 a.m.

Patrolman Richard Aumais, who reported to the scene first, while on patrol in the area, pushed in the front door to determine if anyone was home.

He was pushed back by the flames which at that time were shooting through the roof of the dwelling.

Firefighters under the direction of Deputy Chief Harold T. Hayes were able to contain the fire within about a half hour, but the flames had made a substantial start before the fire was discovered.

Saturday night's fire involving the Thompson home on Forrest Drive, left much of the building a charred hulk.

Deputy Fire Chief Walter Winward said the building was fully involved when firefighters arrived in response to a call at 5:49 p.m.

The fire is believed to have started through material of a combustible nature found at the scene, according to investigating officials.

Presenting a possible hazard at the Forrest Drive fire was a tank of liquid propane which the firefighters hosed down to prevent explosion.

Detective Sgt. Robert Parker and Detective Donald Mooers have been joined by Detective Donald Howard in the investigation of the two latest fires.

Students At Colby

Four area residents are among the 172 students from Massachusetts enrolled in the freshman class at Colby College, Waterville, Maine.

From Andover, James J. DeYoreo, Gerard J. Skinder and Cynthia Burns are among the freshman at the co-education institution established in 1813.

Donald Philip Hyde, of North Andover is also enrolled in the freshman class.

Skinder and Miss Burns are both graduates of Andover High School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Skinder of 189 High Plain Road and she, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Burns, 85 Central St.

DeYoreo, son of Mr. and Mrs.

S.G. DeYoreo of 48 School St., is a graduate of St. John's Prep in Danvers.

ding to a vote of the school committee which established a new schedule to begin at $5,000 with a maximum of $8,900.

Haggett's pond has risen one and one-half inches as a result of pre-Thanksgiving rainstorms, but considerable more is needed to bring the pond to a safe level.

For the second time, the selectmen have received no bids on the old Bradlee school in Ballardvale.
